Got an [C] old Ford pickup, some [F] worn out jeans,
A ball [C] cap that says tequila, and a [G] bottle of Jim Beam.
I'm [C] out here on some back road; just [F] where I don't know,
Whiskey [C] Train, getting' [G] further from [C] home. [C]

I'm [C] out here on some back road; just [F] where I don't know,
Whiskey [C] Train, getting' [G] further from [C] home. [C]

I don't [C] water down my whiskey, I let it [F] burn going down,
Playing [C] aces and eights, Lady [G] Lucks not around.
So, [C] cut the cards and deal; don't [F] let me drink alone,
Whiskey [C] Train, getting' [G] further from [C] home. [C7]

[F] Whiskey Train we're rollin', [C] rollin' again,
[G] Where the hell we going? [C] Where the hell we been?
[F] We're out here riding, [C] riding alone,
[F] Whiskey Train don't take me, [G] so [G7] far from [C] home. [C]

There's a [C] devil on my shoulder, he [F] whispers in my ear,
Take a [C] shot of that ole bourbon, I [G] hear him real clear.
He [C] pours me a double; then [F] rolls them ivory bones,
Whiskey [C] Train, getting' [G] further from [C] home. [C7]

[F] Whiskey Train we're rollin', [C] rollin' again,
